

Opening Ceremony, Plenary Speaker
Prof. Dr. Stanley Whittingham
Nobel Prize in Chemistry, 2019

Pontevedra (Spain)
17-19th of November, 2021

OBJECTIVE

The annual International Galician-Portuguese Conference on Chemistry is organized alternatively in Portugal (hosted by the Portuguese Chemical Society, SPQ) and in Galicia (hosted by the Association of Official Galician Chemists, COLQUIGA, and the Galician Association of Chemists). It intends to be a friendly space for Spanish and Portuguese Chemists to meet; to share and gain cutting-edge knowledge, and a place for industries and academics to mix and find common working areas.
